

Standards for the summary of oral communications

Length

Minimum 250 word, maximum 300 words.

First page

Title, authors, institution, country and a brief profile of each of the authors.

(Maximum 100 words for each author)

Second page

Title, summary, keywords (between 5 and 8) and thematic line in which it participates.

Summary

The summary must account for the objective, problem, the theoretical references, the methodology and results and conclusions in the case of and investigation.

When the submitted work is and expert opinion or in form of essay, the summary should be a synthesis of the document.

The summaries should be submitted written under APA standards, version 6. Font Calibri 11, 1.5 line spacing. Document Format: Word 2003 or higher. The page size is letter. 3 centimeter margins on all 4 sides.