

1. Sport, physical activity and disability from a social viewpoint
2. The sport performance and its implication in Latin American sport culture
3. Sport programs for all, transformation of citizen habits
4. Body, corporeity, corporal experience and citizenship
5. Implications of mega- sporting events in Latin America. (FIFA, COI, World Games, etc)
6. XXI century, politics for the development of sports in South, Central and North America.
7. Women and sport, new paradigms of intervention
8. The structures and organizations of sport in Latin America
9. Contribution of the academic associations of sport in our context
10. Implications of sporting practices in health in Latin American populations
11. School sport and their participation in the creation of a sports cultures
12. Mediatica Vision of Sport
13. The elderly adult and his social integration through sports and the physical activity
14. Socio-cultural studies of leisure, free time and recreation
15. Sport, identities and nationalisms
16. State, violence and sport